

Mark Schwarzer OAM
Soccer Legend

as at October 2009

internationalquarterback

Mark Schwarzer

Mark Schwarzer's success is proof that sometimes what goes into a victory is not as important as what is kept out. At 194 centimetres tall (or horizontal), it's just as hard to go past Mark's good nature as it is to breach his soccer goal.

With the excitement surrounding the 2010 World Cup and Mark's immanent retirement. International Quarterback is seeking a publishing partner for Mark.

Personal Details

D.O.B	6 th October 1972
Resides	Sydney, New South Wales
Career Highlight	Socceroos qualifying for 2006 FIFA World Cup
Club	Fulham, England
Position	Goalkeeper

Interesting Facts

Something we didn't know	I have worn the same shin pads since I was 19 years old
Favourite song	I like music from a lot of different artists such as Stevie Wonder, Scissor Sisters, M People, Justin Timberlake right through to Jimmy Barnes
Favourite movie	Old School
Hobbies	Reading, fishing and watching sport
Can't live without	My laptop
Superstitions	Shin pads (I need to wear the same ones always)
Relaxation techniques	Sleeping and reading
Cooking expertise	BBQs and making Spanish Paella
Favourite food	German, Spanish and all Asian food
Describe yourself	Balanced
Favourite quote	"Treat others like you would like to be treated"

Mark Schwarzer

Career History

Current

- Fulham Goalkeeper (England)
- Co-author of 3 children books 'Megs & The Crazy Legs', 'Megs, Scarves & Sombreros' and 'Megs & The Football Kids'

1997 – 2008

- Middlesbrough, England (333 games)

1996 – 1997

- Bradford City, England (16 games)

1995 – 1996

- Kaiserslautern, Germany (4 games)

1994 - 1995

- Dynamo Dresden, Germany (2 games)

1990 – 1994

- Marconi Stallions, Australia (68 games)

National Team History

1993 – Current

- Australia (70 games)

Awards and Accolades

2009

- Awarded Order of Australia Medal
- Australian Footballer of the Year
- Fulham Player of the Year

2006

- Member of Australian FIFA World Cup qualifying team

2006

- Middlesbrough 2004 League Cup Champions

Community Involvement

- Special Australian representative for UNHCR

Partners

For more information on Mark Schwarzer, contact:

Lisa Stallard

Senior Talent Manager

+61 73 852 7411

LStallard@internationalquarterback.com.au

www.internationalquarterback.com.au