

Nathan Sharpe

Australian Rugby player

as at February 2009

Nathan Sharpe

Nathan Sharpe, the only man to play in all seven of the Wallabies games at the World Cup, has cemented his place as the number one lock in Australia.

Highly regarded, Nathan was voted by his fellow team mates and opponents for the Australia Rugby Medal for Excellence in 2002, following such an accolade he then went on to debut for Australia later that year.

He is the Western Australian patron for Ronald McDonald's Family Retreats and Australia's rugby pride and joy.
